

Trans Atlantic Gem Sales Significantly Exceeds its Previous Tender Sales Record in its May 2018 Dubai Tender

Following on from the record sales achieved in its April 2018 Dubai Tender (USD 22m), Trans Atlantic Gem Sales set a new record in its May event.

Approximately 50, 000 carats of high quality rough diamonds from two Angolan sources and one South African source were presented for viewing and achieved a sales value in excess of USD 41m.

In its five tenders so far in 2018, Trans Atlantic Gem Sales has experienced a steady growth in caratage available for sale, increased participation from a growing number of geographically diverse buyers and the realisation of the best prices in the world market.
